The Anne Carlsen Center will host a Family Literacy Event in May at the ACC campus that will include such loveable characters as Ollie the Otter and Clifford the Big Red Dog.

ACC Family Event Set

The Anne Carlsen Center is inviting bookworms of all ages to a Family Literacy Event on May 10 on the Center's Jamestown Campus from 2-5 p.m.

The event is open to ACC students and staff, Community Services clients and outpatient therapy clients (and family members from all groups), along with children of ACC staff.

Organizations such as Prairie Public, Otter Tail Power Company, Jamestown Hospital, the 2nd Street Arts Center Theatre, and Alfred Dickey Library will share in the fun as the Center celebrates some of its Hometown Heroes while illustrating the benefits to a literate lifestyle.

Clifford the Big Red Dog will be available for fun and pictures, along with Otter Tail Power Company's Ollie the Otter.

Children will receive a book during the event and will create their own literary masterpieces at a writing center during one of the planned activities.

Actors from the 2nd ACT will present students with a reading and interpretation from the popular children's book "The Magically Mysterious Adventures of Noelle The Bulldog."

The event has been made possible through a grant from Prairie Public.

The Center asks that if you decide to take photos at the event, please only take photographs of your own child.
