

50th

Day

Bopping at School

Students at the Anne Carlsen Center celebrated the 50th day of class on a November day with 1950s activities including playing with Hula-Hoops, listening to music, and drinking Root Beer floats.

Left — Anna grabs a Hula-Hoop that is spun on the gymnasium floor. Below — Cade was all smiles during the celebration. Right — Gabby loved playing with Hula-Hoops. Lower-Right — Austin does “The Twist.” Far-Upper-Right — Eileen Pfarr shows Zero the Hero (aka Ty) a fun way of Hula-Hooping. Far-Mid-Right — Saige and Connie dance to some golden oldies. Far-Bottom-Right — Tieranny turns a collection of Hula-Hoops into an impromptu game of Hopscotch.
